

MORAIOLO - the leaf

Length (cm+ - E.S.): short (4.84+ - 0.55)
 Width (cm+ - E.S.): medium (1.19+ - 0.12)
 Shape: oblong, oblong-lanceolate
 Surface of the lamina (square cm+ - E.S.): small (3.95+ - 0.33)
 Curvature of the lamina longitudinal axis: flat
 Side view of the leaf lamina: flat
 Apical angle: open
 Basal angle: acute
 Position of maximum width: central
 Colour of the upper surface: dark green

MORAIOLO - The fruit

Length (cm+ - E.S.): short (1.59+ - 0.15)
 Maximum diameter: (cm+ - E.S.): narrow (1.26+ - 0.12)
 Shape: spherical-ovoid
 Weight of 100 drupes (g+ - E.S.): low (143.60+ - 36.70)
 Symmetry: symmetric, sometimes slightly asymmetric
 Position of maximum diameter: central
 Apex shape: round, often with a small depression.
 Base shape: flat, sometimes oblique
 Stalk cavity: circular, narrow, deep
 Exocarp: slightly pruinose, smooth; numerous small lenticels, more conspicuous in green olives, similar to the olive colour in the completely pigmented ones.
 Skin colour index: medium, contemporaneous and slow
 Colour changes: light green - purple red - black
 Pulp consistency: medium-high
 Pulp consistency changes: gradual slow decrease during the ripening process
 Pulp/stone ratio: medium-low
 Yield: high
 Period of maximum inoliation: late
 Fall of unripe olives: medium and late

MORAIOLO - Endocarp

Length (cm+ - E.S.): short (1.12+ - 0.12)
 Maximum diameter (cm+ - E. S.): narrow-medium (0.65+ - 0.08)
 Shape: obovate
 Weight of 100 stones (g+ - E.S.): low (27.86+ - 2.53)
 Symmetry: symmetric - slightly asymmetric
 Position of maximum diameter: central-apical
 Surface: slightly rugose
 Fibrovascular grooving: generally numerous grooves
 Course of fibrovascular grooving: longitudinal
 Depth of fibrovascular grooving: medium
 Base shape: rounded
 Apex shape: rounded
 Apex termination: short rostrum

MORAIOLO - Inflorescence

Structure: loose
 Branching: plentiful
 Total length (cm+ - E.S.) medium (2.87+ - 0.30)
 Pedicel length (cm+ - E.S.): short (0.74+ - 0.16)
 Maximum width (cm+ - E.S.): medium (1.39+ - 0.10)
 Number of flowers (n+ - E.S.): medium (21.00+ - 2.73)
